Addy 'Button' Coad Yup, shadowing some different roles, for a short period. Thanks Lee, definitely an unpaid short term internship.

Sam Lloyd Hi Addy, as an intern I assume the position would be similar to a runners? I have been a Runner for 2 years and am looking to move up towards a junior shooting researcher. Does You Generation have that position for interns to move up to (if they are kept on)? Thanks

Addy 'Button' Coad Hi Sam - we're a very small team so don't keep a JSR on staff. An intern role is more varied than a runner - we're looking for people who will get to try a variety of roles and get generalised experience, rather than just a runner position.

Sam Lloyd Thanks for your reply. Are you planning to keep people/someone on at the end of the internship if they do well? or is this just for experience only? I'm a fan of youtube and use it myself so this sounds very appealing to me.

Addy 'Button' Coad Hi Sam, we aren't bringing in interns specifically with a view to hiring someone, but as you know in the industry it's great to make contacts, and things do change.
